

Faster Automation at Reduced Cost for Agile

Cognizant Intelligent Test Scripser helped a leading pharmacy chain in UK implement seamless in-sprint automation

The Business Challenge

The client, a leading UK based multinational Pharmacy chain, required a more nimble automation strategy to keep up with the growing cost pressures of digital.

Client wanted to move to agile, however, their existing automation infrastructure was ill equipped to support frequent releases.

Cognizant was brought in as a partner of choice to overhaul the client's automation strategy for digital.

Our Solution

Cognizant aimed to increase the client's automation coverage while simultaneously reducing cost.

Scripts are the bottleneck to early automation as creating scripts are time consuming and require highly skilled resources, driving up costs.

Cognizant Intelligent Test Scripser was deployed to overcome this challenge.
